

James: Rhythms of Prayer

Justin Rusinowski | Ryan Ceola

Live as ONE

What has been particularly impactful to you through our series in James this fall? What have been memorable moments for you as you gathered in worship and community?

What are you looking forward to as we begin Clarity, a year-long series focused on seeing Jesus clearly?

Live by the WORD

Read James 5:13-20 and consider the following as you focus on praying together.

Notice the personal, individual focus of prayer in verse 13.

- Where are you experiencing hurt in your life right now? What would you like to say to God about that pain? What would your prayer to God sound like?
- Take time to fill in the blanks in gratitude and praise together:
God, thank You for _____.
God, You are _____.

Notice the communal, relational focus of prayer in verses 14-16.

- Where do you feel weakness and the effects of sin in your life right now?
- Take time to fill in the blanks in confession together:
I feel _____; will you pray for me?
I am sorry for _____; will you pray for me?

Live as SENT

Notice the missional, transformative focus of verses 19-20.

- Where do you long to witness life-change?
- Take time to each pray for one life-change story in the making by name.
- Take time to pray for 1,000 of those kinds of life-change stories in and through our church family.

Connect DAILY

Day 1	James 1
Day 2	James 2
Day 3	James 3
Day 4	James 4
Day 5	James 5