

ECCLESIASTES: Memory

Matt Noetzel | Ryan Ceola

Live as ONE

As you've been going through Ecclesiastes, what are you going to remember and why? What is something you will be putting into practice that signifies growth in your relationship with God?

How are you going to capture these important takeaways and apply them in your everyday life?

Live by the WORD

Read Ecclesiastes 12.

What are some of the sobering realities this passage highlights? What are some of the encouraging and hopeful realities? Why do we need a firm grasp on all of these?

Is this chapter a good summary of the message of Ecclesiastes? Why or why not?

Do you personally believe verse 13? What difference does that make in your life through all of the complexities, joys, sorrows, etc.? How can that perspective make more of a difference in your life right now?

Live as SENT

How does the sobriety, honesty, wisdom, and hope of Ecclesiastes help us to engage our mission field where we live, work, and play?

How does an honest consideration of life "under the sun" help us to compassionately share a life of hope trusting the Risen Son of God? How could it help us listen, pray, and love well?
